Great work again , fella !!
- well done and thanks for your efforts
So - basically it seems according to this that WE arent even TRULY Humans any more - just the Body (flesh shirt) with an implanted Spider brain running it . . . ?
Or is there possibly a chance that for we who question these things , maybe the implant failed and our real Human brain taken control??

+flames - that's my take on the research thus far. There were failed attempts to merge the arachnid brain with the human body prior to 1605 BC; whether these humans were non 4XX type genotypes and still existed over time, it is possible (yet to the extent that these genotypes were closer to the original human race, I'm not sure). The only mention of non 4XX is a potential WWII that was to happen in the late 20th century/early 21 century, but I'm still trying to sort that out.

This area gets into a lot of post-Hatybov stuff which I hope to summarize on my next post; so if it is truly derived from Hatbova or offshoot interpretations, I do not know. Thanks again for the comment

Do we ever read "Join the rebellion Hatibow want you! - also know as how to fight the Ebrov system"...

I mean did our hero ever write how he fight the system?

Hatybov did allegedly begin to run an interference program on the Ebrov system beginning in 1985 that began with 3 earthquakes (or destruction of three control pyramids beneath the surface). I'm still trying to piece that blog post together as the info is scattered as for how to fight the system, that likely isn't on line at this time. there were some 16.5 thousand pages of documents Hatybov published, but unfortunately they do not appear to be available for public consumption at this point - thanks for the comment Adam

I find it strange how all data is March 2014 and onwards. The name of Hatybov is tied with Morozov and Levashov, e.g.

"" В основата на всички подадени материали се работи НЕИЗПЪЛНЕНИТЕ руски учени - НА Морозов , А. НАТЫБОВА , NV Levashov , ръководител на SRI NCC - BV Мас-ове и колективно "Руски научно и техническо общество", водена от FD Shkrudnevum , както и на други автори , които обясняват същността на това, което се случва днес ... " source in Bulgarian: (<http://zahariada.blog.bg/politika/2013/09/24/za-poreden-pyt-za-nevejestvoto.1151618>).

Levashov left Russia and moved to California, and for some reason I think Hatybov was his pen-name for Russia. This whole thing looks like fiction, russian version of L.Ron.Hubbard.

Thanks Xenon - this does carry some very similar threads to Hubbard for certain. I did see something online stating levashov was murdered at some point - where did you find that he moved to CA? Are you thinking that Morozov was also Levashov too? thanks for the comment!

Xenon December 14, 2015 at 3:23 AM

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Nicolai_Levashov

.. The "three wives" thing is a big red light for me. That's why Tesla's enigma remains, he was a devoted man to his dream/science/ideals, these multiple-spouse "fantasy" writers are hard to trust, I mean they need their stories in order to earn money, the better the story = more money.

James Alfred December 14, 2015 at 6:31 AM

No doubt about the idea of making money on epic sci fi. Definitely not the first to do this;

The wikipedia entry - thanks for that. When I first started digging into Levashov back in April, the only info on Wikipedia was a small paragraph about him being a radical new age teacher that had been murdered at some point . Someone has definitely expanded upon his bio since then. Thanks for the update on that - a true bio of the man would be very helpful in the context of all of this information

Xenon December 14, 2015 at 2:37 PM

So for all we know the Wiki article might be bogus since as you say it was a minor article. We have to analyze who are the editors that have expanded on the original article. Logic says, if we can't dig anything on Hatibov, this Levashov guy have might as well invented him or was his pen name back in Russia. We need Russians to follow up on this and see if Hatibov even lived/worked at the institutions that are listing his credentials (by physically visiting those places and asking for some references).

James Alfred December 14, 2015 at 2:51 PM

I completely agree with you Xenon; one of the purposes of writing about the works of Hattybov was to hopefully get some insight as to whether the individual actually existed or whether the work was fictitious. I have had some activity from Russia/Ukraine on the blog but nothing that has outright provided evidence that such a person existed. If Levashov is one in the same, I think that should be made known and made public for future reference. With some luck, I hope we do get some answers in the future.

- Why all conspiracy theories have a major converging point almost matching the date around the period they're being published
- These Ebrov, spiders, whose product we apparently are as an experiment, would have any problem wiping all of us in a split second to allow for their golden billion/million to remain. No need for vaccines, nano dust through chemtrailing or any other means, they can just unplug us (matrix style) via our core. A simple "sun/moon" wave can convert all non-golden/ex genotypes into zombies
- Why would the Ebrov allow individuals to even own a channel like this or spread these doubts (unless perhaps someone applies the Matrix reasoning, that we need the "One" to reset the system properly or allow the ones that would like to awake to be awoken).- Why wouldn't any other alien race intervene in this supposedly very dangerous experiment e.g. allowing a lowly (octave wise) race to ascend almost 300% through us (humans). Wouldn't this make these beings a LOT more dangerous to everyone in the universe
- ..We have tons of logical fallacies we can debunk.

Thanks for the feedback Xenon - this absolutely could be 100 % science fiction, no doubt. I try to point that out in the summaries I put together.

As for your questions above - I think the idea of the material is that someone figured out this Land Management System in the mid 80's and began to run an interference program...hence the inability of the Ebrov to liquidate the masses. The post 85 era gets a bit messy, but I would like to get something posted on the Hattybov interference program soon (could also be scifi, no doubt).

I think the idea of a level of consciousness tied to intelligence isn't highly correlated, per the material. The UFO article I think makes certain to mention that other life forms are prevented from intervening on Earth; there is a Super System Defense mechanism that prevents other life forms from entering our solar system. The material even goes so far to state that UFOs are terrestrial; aliens are essentially a misguided belief.

Does that make some sense? I can address more as needed; again, this could all be science fiction. I am definitely not stating that I know any of this to be fact. Thanks Xenon

There are many convergence points with the matrix movies than meet the eyes at a first sight.

Why the Ebrov let spread those doubts? Well i don't think the reason is to wake the "One", because the "One" is a direct product of the system of control and not the goal of it, I mean the real reason for the good health of the system, is not the wakening of the one; For the system to work the system need to leave an unconscious choice to all "the jackets", the "One" otherwise is another system of control to keep the anomaly in check.

All those could be the reasons that why the Ebrov don't simply wipe us all, and let we discuss the possibility of the same existence of the simulation in a blog...

Another point in common with the Matrix movies are the Balabesk entity, described by Hattybow in the same way that matrix does, (ghost, goblin, elf vampire etc etc).

And don't forget the very same machines in duty to overwatch the humans pod in the "real" have spiderbeinglike bodies...

adam@whatisthematrix.it December 14, 2015 at 3:32 PM

P.S. Sorry for my english...

Bonnie B January 2, 2016 at 8:09 PM

Adam@whatisthematrix.it I must interject a comment here. I think you are spot on especially in regards to the sentinels in the Matrix looking like spiders. Let's say, hypothetically speaking, that this were all true. Are we all walking around with spiders on our brains or are we running ourselves?

adam@whatisthematrix.it January 5, 2016 at 1:52 PM

More than the sentinels i was point the machine that in the movie dump the Neo bodies to the sewer after he wake up in the real world inside the pod. But many other machine in 01 got spiders bodies.

i don't get well what you mean if hypothetically all this were true.

Do you mean if the spider beings are only in what our brain elaborate, (the simulation we are living) of the spider being are in the real tangible world?

I truly believe I have solid evidence of a fabricated moon & have spotted what could very possibly be a black cube within. I would rather not post publicly on this blog, but do not mind sharing on a personal level with an administrator or someone in charge & seriously, actively researching. I have many images that will show what we very much could be dealing with.. This is my personal footage from my telescope. I have been researching this subject for years & now full time & have hundreds of hours of my observation footage from the past 8 months. This is a very serious subject for me.. No real explanation; the suggestion tends to sway into the arena where one suspects the material online was altered after the fact in respect to the question regarding religion
